AUTHOR WOOS HIS MUSE
RUBAIYAT INSPIRES BOTH

MISS GLADYS HANNA, WHO IS TO MARRY RICHARD WALTON TULLY, PLAYWRIGHT AND UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA GRADUATE.

WEDDING DAY NEAR APPEAL BY DIGGS

Californian's Drama Wins Him
Laurels and Bride As Well.

Was Miss Gladys Hanna, daughter of a Toronto clergyman, and soon to be Mrs. Richard Walton Tully, the real inspiration of "Omar the Tentmaker?" That's what Oakland friends of the playwright, who knew him in the University of California days and in the days when he was a reporter on an Oakland newspaper, declare, and "they" say that it was while reading the "Rubaiyat of Omar" with the bride-to-be, that not only the play originated, but also the courtship that led to the recent announcement of the engagement. The romance and poetry of the Persian tentmaker, they declare, cast its spell over the couple, and the wedding is to be an event of the coming year.

The news of the engagement of Tully to the fair Canadian was a surprise to his local friends.

HIS FIRST ROMANCE.

Tully had been divorced from his former wife, Eleanor Gates, author of "The Poor Little Rich Girl," who recently was married to a New York journalist. It was reported that he was to wed Mrs. Hull McClaughry, daughter of E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin. Mrs. McClaughry is writing music for an operatic version of "Omar." Following a denial of this story by both Tully and Mrs. McClaughry came the news of his engagement to Miss Hanna.

Tully is a graduate of the University of California, and his first play was produced at the Macdonough, this being the college farce, "James Wobblers, Freshman." Following his graduation he was employed as an Oakland newspaper reporter for some time. It was during this time that he met Miss Gates and the two finally were married.

His play, "The Rose of the Rancho," as revised by David Belasco, was his first big success. Tully is author and producer of Omar the Tentmaker, and also wrote "The Bird of Paradise."

Regional Bank Will Release $400,000,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Benjamin Strong, Jr., governor of the Federal reserve bank in this city, which begins business November 16, will receive an annual salary of $30,000, it was learned today. Pierre Jay, chairman of the board and the bank's agent, will receive approximately $15,000. Local institutions will begin within a few days to make first payments for Federal reserve bank stock. It is estimated that the opening of the regional bank will release fully $400,000,000 and impart an easier tone.

Former State Architect Makes
Attempt to Escape
Punishment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The appeal of Maury I. Diggs, former state architect from the conviction in the United States federal district court of having violated the Mann white slave traffic act, was filed today in the United States district court of appeals.

F. Drew Caminetti, jointly convicted with him of the same offense, already has filed his appeal.

Both defendants are out on bail. Their sentences, if confirmed, will send them to San Quentin penitentiary.

The brief of Diggs is made returnable November 5 and much resembles Caminetti's brief. The contention made is that Diggs' conduct was more in the nature of an escapade or elopement than a criminal violation of the Mann act, which makes it a felony to transport a woman from one state to another for immoral purposes.

In the conduct of the trial Judge Van Fleet is alleged to have committed a material error when he charged the jury that the unwillingness of the defendant to answer all the questions put to him was tantamount to evidence of guilt. This is along the line of the legal maxim that the burden of proof must not be placed on the defendant.

Furthermore the testimony of Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris should have been corroborated, it is argued, and counsel for the Government had no right to sway the jury by telling them that $9,000,000 people were waiting for a verdict of guilty.

CONVENTION TO DEPOSE CARRANZA

Official Reports Are the Provisional President
Will Succeed.

First Chief to Lose His Position Today or Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Official reports received here today indicated that the Mexican national convention at Aguas Calientes would today or tomorrow depose General Carranza as first chief and substitute a provisional president.

American Consul Silliman reported he was reliably informed of General Carranza's intention to retire under condition that no objections would be interposed to his candidacy at a regular election and that the tenure of the provisional government should be short.

Officials here believed that while Carranza refused to take the initiative in submitting his resignation, he would abide by the convention's decision, should it vote to retire him. Evidence of that was contained in official advices which reached here that Carranza is making no extraordinary military preparations.

MAYTORENA RETREATS.

Conflicting reports had been received by the state department as to Carranza's attitude. While no confirmation has been received of reported disturbances in Mexico City, official advices told of a general order by Carranza deposing many commanders who were Villa adherents in the convention and appointing others in their place. Similarly a decree was issued by Carranza informing all chiefs throughout the republic that

Dismiss S. P. Fare Rate Investigation

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The railroad commission, this morning, dismissed the investigation brought on its own initiative into the practice of the Southern Pacific of collecting fares in excess of 5 cents for one continuous ride within the city of Oakland. The issues involved in this case were covered by a recent decision in which the commission held that between West Oakland and Sixteenth street, and all portions of the city of Oakland, the uniform 5 cent fare should be established. The commission held, however, that the company might charge 10 cents between points in Oakland and the end of the Oakland mole.

BRITISH NEWSPAPER PRAISES ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS SERVICE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 26, 4:45 a. m.—The Times, in an editorial today dealing with the censorship question, compares the treatment accorded the Associated Press correspondents by the English and German governments to the disadvantage of the former. It says further:

"Perhaps Premier Asquith and his colleagues never heard of the great American institution known as the Associated Press. It is the most wonderful news organization in the world and nothing in Europe can compare with it. Its statements are generally accurate and are implicitly trusted throughout North America."

CHICAGO SNOWED IN WHILE THE SUN BATHES OAKLAND

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—The first snow storm of the season struck Chicago this morning. As the thermometer registered only 42 degrees the big flakes melted as soon as they landed. The weather bureau predicted frost for tonight with a minimum temperature of about 35 degrees, and indicated the cold spell would last 48 hours.

At noon today the thermometer at the Key station at Fortieth street and Broadway, Oakland, recorded 63 degrees in the shade and the mercury rose steadily throughout the afternoon. The heat today is not unusual for the month of October, according to a statement made this morning by Professor Charles Burkhalter, director in charge of Chabot observatory.

TOKIO, Oct. 26.—Official announcement was made today that the Diet will convene December 5.

TO-DAY'S WAR DEVELOPMENTS

By Associated Press.

The supreme efforts of the fighting men of five nations have failed to turn the tide of battle along the Franco-Belgian border. Latest reports today were that a struggle of unparalleled fury was still in progress along the North sea, where the Germans, with reckless bravery, are flinging their troops against the allies' forces.

The French official statement indicates that an attempt to cut off the German right wing had made some progress. If, as is said, the allies have established a front from Ypres to Roulers, the German line has been thrust back in a sharp angle, the point of which is considerably to the northward of their forces on the shore of the North sea.

The German movement across the Yser, which presented a menacing prospect to the allies, has been checked, the French war office says.

All accounts agree that the toll of human life exacted in this crucial struggle is enormous. Three meadows near Ostend, a British correspondent reports, are heaped with German dead.

From the remainder of the long line of battle, stretching to the south and east, across France to the edge of Switzerland, there is no word.

Apparently both sides are awaiting the outcome of the conflict to the north, upon which depends future plans of campaigning, although it is probable that heavy fighting is in progress to the north of Verdun, where the army of the German crown prince is making a desperate effort to pierce the French line.

Reports from the eastern front indicate that the greatest battle of the war in that arena is impending. Aus-

Trenches Protect Poss- ible Line of Retreat From Yser

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 26, 7:40 a. m.—The correspondent of the Times at Rotterdam sends the following:

"It is clear that the Germans are putting Antwerp in a state for defense. In most of the important fortifications the Belgian guns have been replaced with German fortress artillery of the latest type.

"The bridge between Antwerp and Pays de Waes, which the retreating Belgians damaged, has been repaired. Evidently the Germans are preparing a line of retreat from the Ostend-Dixmude line.

"The authorities have ordered the railroads to cease the free conveyance of refugees from Holland to Antwerp. Only a small garrison at present is in Antwerp, probably not more than 3000 men."

English Dig Trenches Lest Germans Invade

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Farmers in the vicinity of Harlow, in Essex county, England, are preparing for a possible German invasion by digging trenches, according to James Cowlin of Newark, N. J., who arrived here today on the steamship Minnehaha.

"The digging of these trenches, which are located so as to be of use in resisting the advance of a German army, indicates that British authorities do not consider that a German invasion is beyond the range of possibilities," Cowlin said.

"The work is being done by order of city and county officials who are understood to have pursued their orders by direction of Lord Kitchener.

"My personal observations were made only in the vicinity of Harlow, but I heard that the farmers of other sections of Essex were similarly occupied."

FRENCH FORCING ATTACK ON LONG LINE NEAR YPRES

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 26, 3:15 p. m.—"Advices from the front this morning," telegraphs the Paris correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company, "indicate a general allied advance in the region between Nieuport and Ypres as well as to the east of Arras."

FRENCH LINE HOLDS FIRM.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 26, 2:54 p. m.—The French official communication given out this afternoon says that yesterday the French line between Nieuport and Dixmude was maintained. The text of the communication follows:

"During the day of yesterday our front along the general line between Nieuport and Dixmude was maintained. The German forces which crossed the Yser, between those two towns, have not been able to progress.

"Our front was held also in the region between Ypres and Roulers, between Armentieres and Lille, to the west of La Bassée and of Lens and to the east of Arras. This line is continued to the south by the line which already has been indicated in these official communications. During the fighting of recent days the enemy seems to have sustained considerable losses."

RUSSIAN SUCCESSES CLAIMED.

"Russia—To the west of the Vistula and to the north of the Pilica river the Germans have been forced back on Lowicz, Skoniewicz and Rawa, which have been captured at the bayonet point by the Russians."

"To the south of the Pilica, in the direction of Radom, there has been a lively engagement between the Russians and the Austro-Germans who lost prisoners and cannon.

"To the south of Solec the Russian troops crossed the Vistula by main force, driving the Austrians back. On the river San and to the south of Przemyśl there have occurred stubborn combats, resulting favorably to the Russians. An Austrian column debouching from the Carpathians on Dolina, in Galicia, twenty-two miles to the south of Strzy, was routed."

MEADOWS HEAPED WITH DEAD.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—"The position on the coast is stationary this morning," says a Daily Mail dispatch from Flushing, Netherlands, under date of Sunday. "There is less firing and it is more to the southward. No alteration of the situation is reported from Ostend."

"The German losses are frightful. Three meadows near Ostend are heaped with dead. The wounded are now installed in private houses in Bruges, where large wooden sheds are being rushed up to receive additional injured. Thirty-seven farm wagons, containing a convulsive mass of wounded, dying and dead, passed in one hour near Middelkerke."

"The Germans have been working at new entrenchments between Coq Sur Mer and Wenduine to protect the road to Bruges." "Recent developments have been so favorable for the allies that I have the best reasons for stating that German evacuation of Ostend may be regarded as imminent," says the Times correspondent in Northern France under date of Sunday.

OLD AND YOUNG TO FRONT.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—"Slowly, but surely, the Germans are being beaten back on the western wing and old men and young lads are being hurried to the front," says the Daily Mail's Rotterdam correspondent, telegraphing Sunday evening. "The enemy were in strong forces at Dixmude, where the allies were repulsed once, only to attack again with renewed vigor."

"Roulers resembles a shambles. It was taken and retaken four times and battered to ruins in the process. The German guns made the place untenable for the allies."

"An Oosburg message says the firing at Ostend is very heavy and that the British are shelling the suburbs which are held by the Germans. Last night and this morning large bodies of Germans left Bruges for Ostend. It is believed the Ostend piers have been blown up."

"The German officers in Brussels have been ordered to the western front. The only points in Belgium now held strongly by the Germans are Liege and Namur."

FLANDERS STREWN WITH DEAD.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 26, 1:11 p. m.—What progress, if any, the German right has made since crossing the Yser, between Nieuport and Dixmude, in Belgium, on Saturday, today stood high above all other questions asked in England concerning the situation of the allied armies.

That the Germans crossed this barrier is admitted by both sides, but whether they have been able to push forward, or whether they have met such opposition from the British and Belgian armies as to be held from swaying beyond the west bank, is yet to be recorded in official statements.

The fight in this canal-webbed section of Belgium, to penetrate which and to gain the channel ports Germany has been sacrificing so many men, covers a comparatively tiny acre of the whole battle line in France and Belgium, but here unquestionably the dead lie thickest.

NAVAL FIRE IS DEADLY.

This fact is due, not only to the determined rush of the German forces, but also to the accurate fire of the British and French warships.

England is now speculating on when the Germans will attempt to bring their navy into action off the Belgian coast.

German submarines have been dodging here and there off the coast during the last week, but with no success. It would not surprise the British if the sea phase of the struggle became more general and more pronounced in the near future, although nothing like a general naval action is expected.

There has been no marked change in the situation since the latest official communications were issued. The contending forces were at each other's throats today, principally along the thirty-eight mile line stretching from Nieuport to the River Lys. A struggle violent but perhaps less active is raging thence southward to Arras.

VON KLUGE SUPERSEDED.

Confirmation from Paris that the German extreme right no longer is being manipulated by General Von Kluge, came as a distinct surprise here. It was said last week that he had been superseded by General Von Arnim, but the latest version has him remaining on the Alsace while Grand Duke Albert of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha is guiding the destinies of the armies in Belgium.

Of the dispatches unfavorable to the Germans was one saying that Antwerp was being put in a state of defense and entrenchments were being prepared to protect the road to Bruges. Among the reports held here to be ridiculous was that Germany was building huge submarine transports with which she hoped to land troops on British soil.

CRUISERS THREATENED.

The status of the cruisers Goeben and Breslau, which were captured from Germany, is again brought to the fore by a dispatch from Rome, which said that the British and Russian ambassadors had notified the ports that the allies would fire on the vessels if they did not leave the Bosphorus, where they are reported to have just entered in haste. The Russian ambassador, it was added, explained the movement of the Russian fleet in the direction of the Bosphorus as due to the fact that the Goeben and Breslau had left Turkish territorial waters.

German Onslaught May Force Great Combat in Flanders to Decision

PARIS, Oct. 26, 8:05 a. m.—The incessant alternatives of advance and retreat between the allies and the Germans, particularly in the north, furnished early today no basis for a summing up as to a general result. The Germans, judging from their frightful loss of men, seem determined to force the battle to an issue. Nevertheless the French public, after analyzing the situation as indicated in the latest war office statements, continued optimistic.

While awaiting further news from the front there is considerable interest in the action the Institute of France will take regarding its German correspondents and associates.

The Institute is expected to meet today. There has been a considerable difference of view among the members as well as the academics forming the Institute, while the press has taken a large part in the discussion. Because of statutory dispositions and decrees there has been some difficulty in reaching a decision. Incidentally one of the academics has expressed himself in favor of returning all of the diplomats' orders and titles received from Germany.

ALLIES SCORE SUCCESS.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The Bordeaux correspondent of the Daily News sent the following regarding the fighting in the Argonne region:

"A useful success has been scored by the allies in the forest of Argonne. After the fighting in the Marne, the Duke of Wurttemberg's army retreated to the western side of the Argonne, while the crown prince's army followed along the eastern side of the forest, having finally around Varennes, over six miles, the two armies have been trying to join hands.

The French have now gained possession of the village of Melzicourt, in the middle of Argonne and command the line to the valley of the Aisne. As long as the crown prince's army is out in the cold, separated by a difficult country from the rest of the German lines."

Von Moltke Victim of Bilious Trouble

BERLIN, via The Hague and London, Oct. 26, 11:05 a. m.—General Von Falkenhayn has been acting as chief of the German general staff during the illness of General Von Moltke, who has been suffering from a bilious complaint. General Von Moltke's condition is not considered serious and already he has shown considerable improvement.

The King of Saxony, while visiting the Saxon troops and the army of the German Crown Prince advanced several times to the firing line in order to satisfy himself concerning the conditions under which the men were fighting.

Lieutenant General Von Rinnhardt, attached to the Wurttemberg troops, has been killed in Belgium. He was a veteran of 1870 and retired from active service in 1905. He volunteered at the beginning of the war and was given command of a brigade.

The report is confirmed that Emperor William has conferred the decoration "Pour Le Merite" on Commander Wedigen of the submarine U-9 for the destruction of the British cruiser Hawke. It is understood that the crew of the submarine has received the decoration of the order of the Iron Cross of the first class.

German Submarine Released ON BAIL

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Florence Condit Carman, who was on trial in Minneola all last week for the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, was released on $25,000 bail by Justice Charles H. Kelby, in the Kings county supreme court in Brooklyn this afternoon. Accompanied by her attorney, she started immediately for her home in Freeport.

JURY DISAGREES.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 26.—The jury which tried Mrs. Carman, wife of Dr. Edwin Carman, the Freeport physician, in whose office Mrs. Louise D. Bailey was shot and killed on June 30, could not agree yesterday after deliberating more than thirteen hours. It was said the jury stood for acquittal and two for conviction.

The district attorney has announced that he would not seek to have Mrs. Carman tried again. Her own counsel, on the other hand, said he would demand a new trial, as he would not permit the indictment to hang over his client.

Is Transfer of Crew Neutrality Breach?

By Associated Press.
HONOLULU, T. H., Oct. 26.—Transfer of the crew of the German power schooner Aerolis, sunk by the Japanese battleship Hizen off this port Saturday from that warship to a launch of the North German Lloyd refugee steamer Locksun outside the harbor yesterday has raised questions as to the propriety of this act. The Locksun is interned here, and there is uncertainty as to whether her sending out a launch did not constitute a breach of neutrality. As there were Chinese among the crew of the Aerolis, a possible breach of the immigration law also is involved.

It is understood here that the situation has been laid officially before Washington for a decision.

The German schooner Hermes, from the Marshall Islands, was more fortunate than the Aerolis, from the same islands, for she succeeded yesterday in running the blockade against German vessels established outside this port by the Elzen, and is now safe under the protection of American neutrality.

Red Cross Transfers $65,000 From Fund

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The American Red Cross, through the state department today transmitted by telegraph $65,000 from its European war relief fund as follows:

—American corps, $25,000; American ambassador at London for the American hospital at Taincourt, $10,000; American consul at Munich for the American hospital, $10,000; American ambassador at Berlin for the two hospitals in Germany where the American Red Cross is on duty, $10,000; American minister at Vienna for the hospitals where the American Red Cross is on duty, $10,000.

Aviators at Rheims Battle High in Air

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 26.—According to the Paris correspondent of the Express five German aeroplanes were destroyed by the French on Saturday. Two Taubes were brought down at Rheims by a single French aviator, he says, who succeeded in setting to a higher altitude than the Germans and then fired on them with a revolver. Two other German "birds" were hit by the guns of the Mehrschutts near Montdidier. A fifth German airman was wounded by a rifle shot at Gravelines, a seaport twelve miles east northeast of Calais.

Germans Have Taken 300,000 Prisoners

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 26.—A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam says that according to Berlin newspapers received there the number of war prisoners in Germany up to October 21 aggregated 295,869, including 5401 officers. Of these it is said that there were 2472 French officers and 146,397 men; 2184 Russian officers and 104,524 men; 547 Belgian officers and 31,378 men, and 218 British officers and 8669 men.

Equerry to Duke of Connaught Is Killed

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 26, 3:33 p. m.—News is received from Oostvry that Captain T. H. Rivers Bulkeley, equerry to the Duke of Connaught, has been killed in action. A year ago last spring Captain Bulkeley married Miss Evelyn Pelly, lady-in-waiting to the Duchess of Connaught.

RUSSIANS AIM TO RETAIN LEMBERG

LONDON, Oct. 26.—According to a dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Rotterdam, the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin says that the Russians, who had withdrawn most of their troops from Lemberg, have now sent 60,000 men there who are strenuously fortifying the town. The Russians, the paper says, are clearly determined to keep Lemberg at all costs.

A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Rotterdam gives the following statement issued in Vienna:

"A telegram dated Sunday noon from the northeastern theater of war says Austrian and strong German forces have taken position in a nearly uninterrupted line from the northern spurs of the Carpathian mountains by way of Stary and Sambor, before the fortress of Przemyśl to the Polish part of the Vistula and to the district of the Russian, who have been reinforced by troops from the Caucasus, Siberia and Turkestan.

The Austrian offensive across the Carpathians attracted strong hostile forces.

"In the middle of Galicia, where both armies occupy fortified positions, the battle is stagnant.

"Northeast of Przemyśl and on the lower San the Austrians have had several successes.

"In Russian-Poland strong forces are facing one another. Since yesterday there has been fighting north of the Vistula between Inowogrod and Warsaw."

GRATITUDE FOR FLEET.

The following telegram has been sent by the Russian Minister of Marine, Rear-Admiral Grigorovich, to the commander of the Russian Baltic fleet, according to a Petrograd correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company:

"The czar charges me to express to you and the fleet his gratitude for the activity this autumn season in keeping the sea despite the dangers from mines and submarines.

"With skill and endurance the Baltic fleet has fulfilled the task of guarding the littoral and supporting the armies on land. Despite the enemy's numerical superiority and temerity he has obtained no definite successes. The czar believes that God will bless with ultimate victory the Russian soldiers who are struggling for the glory of their dear country."

Regarding the operations in Poland the dispatch says:

"The precipitate flight of the Germans continues. They are evacuating Lodz, seventy-five miles west southwest of Warsaw. They made an unsuccessful attempt to arrest the offensive Russian movement by clinging to positions at Sokhatoff, from which, however, they were dislodged with heavy losses."

R. Knowland and Captain John D. Fredericks in their fight for election.

The meetings are being arranged by the executive and campaign committees of the county Republican organization. Among the meetings so far scheduled, at which all Republican candidates will be invited to speak, are the following:

GERMANY NOT TO ATTACK CANADA

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Although Germany contends that Canada, by sending troops against Germany, has violated the spirit of the Monroe doctrine, Germany has no intention of attacking Canada, nor attempting to colonize that dominion, according to a statement issued here today by the German embassy.

The statement was in amplification of the view expressed yesterday by Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that by taking part in the war, the Canadians had justified an aggressive campaign against themselves. Further to explain the reason that caused the German government, in a formal note delivered to the state department on September 30 by Count Bernstorff, voluntarily to pledge Germany not to attempt colonial expansion in North America, no matter what the outcome of the war, the embassy issued this statement:

"The note was written at that time because Winston Churchill has said in a message to the American people that if Germany was victorious in the present war she would attack the Monroe doctrine."

Re-allege That "No Quarter" Was Ordered

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The French embassy today issued the following statement:

"The report appeared some time ago that General Stenger, commanding a brigade of the German army in France, had issued an order to his troops to give no quarter to prisoners, but to shoot them all and to finish the wounded."

"An official statement from Berlin, via Saville, was issued thereupon, declaring that this was an 'impudent lie.'"

"The atrocious order had, nevertheless, really been given and carried out, and proof of it is in the hands of the French government. Over twenty German prisoners of the 11th and 14th regiments of infantry, now held in France, have declared, under oath before the magistrate, that this order was actually issued on the 26th of August, and that in accordance with it all French wounded found that day were at once dispatched. Officers and notably Captain Curdus of the 11th regiment superintended the execution."

By Associated Press.
FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 26.—Five thousand war horses, it was estimated today, are held here awaiting delivery to the French and English commissions which have been busy buying here for several weeks.

DEATH SWEEPS PLAINS.

All reports agree that the fighting in West Flanders has been terrible, beyond any other during the war. Projectiles hurled from the land, the sea, and the air are sweeping this flat, unprotected country, destroying villages and searching out the terror-stricken inhabitants who delayed too long in getting out of the line of fire.

Paris reports that to the west and to the south of Lille fierce attacks by the Germans have been repulsed. The most significant part of the Paris official communication relates that the French, with their heavy artillery, now command the road which is one of the principal lines of German communication with St. Mihiel, the holding of which by the invaders constituted one of the greatest menaces to the allied line.

Reports indicate that the French aerial service has responded to the demand for re-organization, which followed the storm of criticism leveled at it because of the ease with which German aeroplanes dropped bombs on Paris. No recent aerial attacks have been made on the French capital, and it is announced along the battle front that five German aeroplanes have been destroyed by French airmen.

Reports from Vienna indicate that along the battle line from the Carpathians to the Russian border, through Galicia, the fighting continues, but without any definite result. Petrograd claims that the Germans still are retiring from Warsaw in precipitate flight, and that they also are evacuating Lodz. The Germans attempted to arrest the Russian offensive movement at Sokhatoff, but were dislodged from their positions there with heavy losses.

There's waiting and gnashing of teeth in Piedmont and a garage is the cause of it all. It was to have been a very pretty garage too—two stories high and designed to house the six big automobiles of Edson Adams, banker. But—it was started thirteen feet from a dwelling house—not that of Adams—and the city ordinance decrees that garages must be at least twenty feet away from any home.

Nelson Howard, neighbor of Adams, whose home is thirteen feet away from the banker's garage, wired Adams when the plan was started, and Adams ordered the work discontinued until he returned from his recent trip to New York. He has returned. In the meantime a recently passed city building ordinance has been unearthed, and it is declared that, anyway, Adams didn't take out a building permit for his structure. The whole matter will come up for settlement before the Piedmont board of trustees Thursday night.

Attempts have been made to modify the ordinance, but so far without success, and Thursday, it is expected, will see Piedmont citizens aligned with both factions, urging their claims before the board. R. A. McWilliams, contractor for Adams, is nonplussed—for he has not been ordered to stop work, and still has the law of the Piedmont fathers hovering over him. Several times friends of Adams and other residents have attempted to reach an agreement in the garage argument, but so far in vain.

U. S. STRIVES TO CUT COST OF MEAT

Secretary Houston Tells the Dairymen Purpose of New Commission.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—"With people of all sections keenly interested in the supply of life's necessities, they recognize the supreme importance of making agriculture efficient and profitable, and rural life comfortable," Secretary Houston of the department of agriculture said today before the opening of the National Dairy Show Association.

He told the association what the government was doing to aid the farmer to increase the nation's rapidly diminishing meat supply and to develop acreage production, and asserted there could be "no question that the key to the solution of many of the problems of rural life will be found in some form of concerted action or co-operation."

SEEK UNKNOWN CAUSES.

"Just what factors have brought about the serious situation confronting the nation in its meat supply," he said, "no one can with certainty define, and so to ascertain them I have appointed a commission consisting of the best authorities I could discover. This study will embrace an investigation of production and consumption, of the methods of producing, finishing and marketing. Certain things, however, now are clear and definite measures for increasing the meat supply are being taken.

"Unquestionably the largest hope for a considerable increase in our meat supply lies in: First, sympathetic attention to the production of larger animals in the settled farming areas of the country especially in the south; second, increasing attention to the smaller animals, such as swine and poultry; and third, the control and eradication of cattle ticks and hog cholera."

DETAILS PLANNED FOR RESERVE BANK

November 16 Set for Opening of System; Requests for Loans Ready.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Steps to set in motion the machinery of the twelve federal reserve banks under the new banking system, the opening for business of which has been fixed officially by Secretary McAdoo for November 16, were being taken here today by the federal reserve board. Confidence was expressed that the early opening of the reserve banks would go a long way toward relieving conditions in the south, brought on by the European war, and be of assistance in the general business situation throughout the country. Emergency conditions in the south in particular prompted the secretary to designate an early date for the opening of the reserve banks.

Haunted by Crime Of Two Years Ago, Shooter Surrenders

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Haunted by an apparition of the man he shot in Seattle nearly two years ago, John McMullen surrendered at the Hall of Justice this morning.

McMullen is a stevedore. He says that on January 19, 1912, he shot John Walsh in a quarrel. Escaping arrest, he hid in the neighborhood of Seattle until he was told that there was no hope for Walsh' recovery. Then he left on a freight train. He has never learned for sure whether Walsh died.

Ever since the crime McMullen has been a wanderer, and every policeman he thinks is on the lookout for him. The idea that he was being shadowed persisted and overcame with remorse for his deed, he decided to satisfy an awakening conscience and stand trial for his crime.

Captain of Detectives Ryan ordered McMullen locked up and remanded with the Seattle authorities.

EL PASO, Oct. 26.—Twenty-six revolutionary leaders of Southern Mexico, representing General Emiliano Zapata, arrived yesterday at Guadalupe, where they were greeted by General Villa.

They proceeded to Aguas Calientes, where the peace conference was expected to resume its sessions today.

The northern leader's reception of the southern conferees was described in a telegram today as most cordial. General Paulino Ramirez acted as the head of the Zapata delegation. The southerners were accompanied north by a committee headed by General Felipe Angeles.

Find Tom Lane Met Accidental Death

DUNSMUIR, Cal., Oct. 26.—A verdict of accidental death was returned by the jury which, under Coroner Davidson, investigated the killing of Tom Lane, an Industrial Worker of the World, member of a gang of sixty unemployed men, who was cut in two by a Southern Pacific freight train here Saturday night while officers were battling with the gang.

Early Saturday evening 60 of the unemployed came in from the north on a freight train and refused to get off, declaring that they would go out on the same train.

Officers on top of the cars shot to scare the men. In the rush Lane fell from the car under the wheels. The shots hit no one.

SOUTH WILL SUPPORT OAKLAND AMENDMENT

Delegation Returns With Pledges of Los Angeles and San Diego for Measure

The Oakland delegation which went to Southern California for the purpose of boosting amendment No. 19 returned to Oakland this morning, satisfied with the result of their trip. Oakland is particularly interested in amendment No. 19 because under that law, if passed, San Francisco will not be able to annex Alameda county territory.

It is therefore quite important that the people of Alameda county vote for amendment No. 19, which is the Oakland amendment, and against amendment No. 21, which is the San Francisco amendment. Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco and Alameda counties have all agreed that amendment No. 19 will meet the conditions in each of the counties named. In order to call the attention of the people of Southern California to the condition of affairs in the north regarding amendment No. 19, the following delegation left for Los Angeles last Thursday evening:

Abraham Jonas, president of the Chamber of Commerce; W. E. Gibson, chairman of the annexation committee; V. E. Sturges of the Chamber of Commerce, Vice-President A. S. Lavenson and Secretary Joseph E. Caine of the Commercial Club, John P. Connors of THE TRIBUNE, G. W. Purcell of the Equivocal, Frank A. Leach Jr. of the Chamber of Commerce and W. H. Welby of the Commercial Club.

BEGIN FIGHT AT ONCE.

Arriving at Los Angeles Friday morning the Oakland delegation was met at the station by the city council and taken to the council chamber, where speeches were made by members of the Oakland delegation, including Abraham Jonas, W. E. Gibson, A. S. Lavenson, W. H. Welby, Frank Leach, G. W. Purcell and others.

The members of the council expressed their gratitude to the delegation and one and all stated that they would be behind amendment No. 19 and that they would send a stamped envelope containing reasons why amendment No. 19 should be carried to every registered voter in Los Angeles county.

After the council adjourned members of the delegation were taken for an automobile ride and shown around Los Angeles.

At 12:30 the Chamber of Commerce of Los Angeles gave the delegation a luncheon at the Jonathan Club. After the luncheon speeches were made by members of the Oakland delegation, including Abraham Jonas, W. E. Gibson and A. S. Lavenson. Responses were made by President Whiffen of the Los Angeles city council, Chairman R. W. Brabham of the county board of supervisors, City Attorney Albert Lee Stephens, George Dunlop and Louis M. Cole, president of the Chamber of Commerce. All pledged the support of Los Angeles to Amendment 19.

SAN DIEGO APPROVES.

It was stated that the people of Los Angeles would appreciate it if the people of Alameda county would remember amendment No. 28, which provides for a public building for the city of Los Angeles. The Los Angeles delegation held that this would be a fair exchange.

After the luncheon the members of the Chamber of Commerce took the members of the Oakland delegation for an inspection of San Pedro Harbor.

Friday at midnight the Oakland delegation left for San Diego, where they met in a conference with the San Diego Chamber of Commerce.

The conference was most satisfactory. Members of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce pledged themselves to support Amendment 19. The Oakland delegation stated that they would go back to Alameda county and tell the people of the splendid reception they received in the south, and that they would urge the voters of Alameda county to give a magnificent majority for Amendment 19, which provides for a consolidated city and county government, but prevents San Francisco from crossing the county line and endeavoring to annex sections of Alameda county.

COUNTY CLERK COOK IS DENOUNCED BY BOYLE

George E. Gross Offers Competent Service, Not Neglect, Speaker Says

At the Allendale theater Saturday night Harry L. Boyle addressed a large audience on the real significance of the report made by the grand jury the previous day. The speaker was frequently cheered as he showed the present county clerk had confessed to shameful neglect of his duties.

"Never before have I seen such admissions made by any official," said Boyle. "Mr. Cook says, in fact, that the county has a salary that he has not earned. Think of it! A gift of $5000 of your money to an official that admits he never earned it."

"Two years ago, according to the grand jury report, the county clerk would probably have been removed from office as another official for neglect of duty. But at that time, and again only a few months ago, Cook saved his head by telling the grand jury that he would not be a candidate for office again, and so they let him off."

"When he was called before the grand jury again he said he had changed his mind, but would do better next time, if elected. Well, shameful as it is, it will not be repeated, for there is now a candidate for county clerk who will not have to make any apologies for what he does in office."

"George Gross has been a public servant quite as long as Mr. Cook and he comes before you now with a record as clean as it is possible for any man to have. Every grand jury that has ever had anything to say about his public service has had nothing but words of praise for him. As regards the duty of the voter under the circumstances there can be but one opinion. To re-elect the present county clerk is to put a premium on unfaithfulness and to encourage the greatest kind of outrage. What would the rest of the state think of us if we retained in office a man who has twice been forced to confess to a neglect of duty that he has neglected his office to attend to his private business?"

"We have heard a lot about irregularities in registration and elections. The county clerk had attended to his duties as he was really paid to do. He has a record that is probably better than any election official. The county clerk appoints all the registration deputies and Cook should have known what he was doing. But a man that is only in his office half an hour a month and that will draw down $366.66 a month for that half hour, will permit almost anything to happen. To stop this sort of thing, George Gross and there will be nothing but praise from the next grand jury for the work of the county clerk's office in the future."

POUFF! and the Cops Rushed to the Scene

"Help! Some one's blown the safe!" This was the call that roused Captain of Police Charles Book and all of his men, with a rush, last night. The alarm came from a downtown bank.

There was a flurry and scurry for a moment and then a group of automobiles, heavily armed, appeared at the bank. They surrounded the place.

True enough, a cloud of smoke issued from the window. The captain, covered by half the force, burst open the door.

A flashlight photographer was putting away his apparatus after having taken an endurance race picture. He was swearing.

"The flash was too strong," he declared.

"It was!" agreed the captain.

The autos were turned toward the city hall, and policemen and captain wended their way back. Their language can't exactly be printed—but they don't like flashlight photographers any more.

French Air Causes Trouble at Presidio

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—An echo of the European war heard on the sacred and neutral ground of Uncle Sam's Presidio reservation is likely to cause the prosecution of Reinhold Hagen, a German employee of the Panama-Pacific Exposition. It was all because of a song, "Let Us Forget the Past," a pretty French melody, was played by Fred Warncke, a French-Canadian interpreter and decorator, also employed by the exposition. He tripped off the notes on his cornet in his room at 2835 Bush street. Hagen, his friend, who had worked with him at the Milan exposition, objected to the tune and requested him to stop, but without result. Later Warncke says that when he was walking through the Presidio Hagen beat him up.

Hagen is a German. He was employed by the United States authorities and a summons was sent out for the offender.

INURED WHILE DRIVING.

Losing control of his horse, yesterday afternoon, E. Houlenger of 2125 Chestnut street was thrown from his rig and sustained injuries about the arms. He was taken to the emergency hospital by the police, where it was found that he had sprained one wrist and sustained a possible fracture of the other. The injuries were attended to by Dr. E. E. Dowdle.

Help the Stomach Digest Your Food

When the stomach fails to digest and distribute that which is eaten, the bowels become clogged with a mass of waste and refuse that ferments and generates poisons that are gradually forced into the blood, causing distress and often serious illness.

Most people naturally object to the drastic cathartic and purgative agents that shock the system. A mild, gentle laxative, positive in its effect and that will quickly relieve constipation is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. It does not gripe or cramp, but acts easily and pleasantly and is therefore the most satisfactory remedy for children, women and elderly persons. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 451 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

WATERFRONT FIRE IS INVESTIGATED

Authorities Seek Origin of Big Conflagration on San Pedro Wharves.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25.—Authorities began an investigation today to determine the origin of the fire which early yesterday caused damage estimated at $250,000 at East San Pedro, on the harbor front. Most of the damage was sustained by the Crescent Wharf and Storage Company. A fish cannery with a large stock was destroyed and the Salt Lake Railroad sustained a loss of about $15,000.

The fire started behind the office of the wharf company and was not discovered until it had gained great headway.

The flames drove most of the residents of the district across the harbor channel. A leaky oil pipe may have started the fire.

Lookers started work in the midst of the confusion incident to the fire and the police made several arrests.

FREDERICKS RESUMES HIS WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN

Candidate Again Starts on Strenuous Tour, Calling for Seven or Eight Speeches Per Day

Following a day of rest at Byron Hot Springs, California, Captain John D. Fredericks this morning started on his tour of Contra Costa, Stanislaus and San Joaquin counties. The campaign calls for seven or eight speeches a day until Wednesday night, with an average of travel of 125 miles each day by automobile.

But despite the fact that Captain Fredericks has put in a busy week and has engaged in a regular whirlwind trip through various sections of the State he is apparently in prime condition, his voice is holding out well and he is making stirring addresses at every place he appears.

Captain Fredericks is now working back toward Los Angeles by way of the San Joaquin valley, expecting to close his campaign in his home city and neighborhood. He will reach Los Angeles Friday. Republicans in the southland are preparing one of the biggest demonstrations ever given a candidate and one of the greatest political rallies in the history of the State.

Captain Fredericks was pleased with Sunday's experience. Although Mrs. Fredericks had declared there would be no politics, she could not stop the delegations that greeted the party as it leisurely motored toward Byron Hot Springs. At Livermore a delegation was waiting to shake hands, and at the springs a delegation from Stanislaus county was in waiting.

Captain Fredericks was indignant over the discharge of old soldiers from the home at Yountville because they have declared against Johnson. "It is an outrage," declared Fredericks, "and I am sure that the people of this State will not permit such a thing to happen again."

At Yountville a delegation was waiting to shake hands, and at the springs a delegation from Stanislaus county was in waiting.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland left Los Angeles this morning on a final campaign through the southern counties. Today he will speak in various towns in Ventura county, tomorrow he will address meetings in San Luis Obispo county, and Wednesday he will return to Los Angeles and vicinity to wind up his campaign in that section.

Congressman Knowland is very sanguine as to the results. He declares that there is little doubt as to the result. His opposition is divided.

"The belief among the voters that a man who has served honestly and to the best of his ability," said Congressman Knowland, "representing the interests of his constituency, should be continued in office, where he has the advantage of experience, is growing steadily. For these reasons I believe my campaign is approaching a successful conclusion."

Hiram Johnson left last night for Los Angeles, where he will spend the last week in his campaign for re-election. He will cover all the districts in the city and the county. He will return in time to hold a meeting Monday night next in the Mission district in San Francisco.

Senator Curtis arrived in the bay region yesterday following a trip to Santa Rosa, where he drew a good crowd, despite the fact that Hiram Johnson was speaking only a short distance away. He is devoting today to the various districts in San Francisco, and will speak at three night meetings this evening. Tomorrow he speaks at the Union Iron Works and on Wednesday he is going down the peninsula, and Wednesday night he leaves for Los Angeles.

Dr. Washington Gladden of Columbus, Ohio, will deliver the installation address. He will be introduced by Dr. Samuel C. Patterson of Berkeley, master of ceremonies. An elaborate program will be given during the evening.

On Wednesday evening there will be a meeting of the congregation at the First Congregational church of this city, which will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

JOBLESS, TOO OLD, HE BEGS

"Frank Jenkins—vagrancy and begging" called the police court clerk, and an old man came forward from the dark little room, where the prisoners are kept, out into the light.

The judge looked him over sternly. "You were begging?"

"Yes, your honor."

"Why?"

"I lost my job in the city, and have been out of work two weeks."

"So now you come begging, on the streets, bumming on people. Call that right?"

The old man did not answer, he stood silent, his head bowed, and he shook with a shivery tremor.

"What's the matter, what are you shaking about?"

"I'm just cold your honor," came the apologetic answer. "I haven't had much to eat for the last few days. That's why I was begging, your honor."

"Well, you'd better get some work. That's the way to do. Have you tried to get anything?"

"Yes, but nobody wants me, I'm too old."

"You aren't sick? How old are you, anyhow?"

"Fifty-two, your honor." The old face stared up at him wistfully, and the shaking, bent body came nearer.

"If you could just find me something, anything, I could do it right. But you know, they won't believe it. Why fifty-two ain't so awful old."

The judge was silent. The old man went back into the dark little room to serve ten days for begging.

POOR AIM SAVES BURGLAR'S LIFE

Caught in Attempt of Entering Home; Resident Fires at Fleeing Crook.

A burglar who attempted to force entrance to the home of M. T. Smith, 529 Chestnut street, by breaking a front window, was seen by John Maxwell last night, living across the street from Smith, and narrowly escaped being captured when Maxwell fired a shot at him. The burglar fled and Maxwell fired a shot at him, but the bullet evidently went wild. The man escaped.

The police were notified and a search was made of the neighborhood. Maxwell's marksmanship was not good because of the darkness. The attempt at burglary occurred shortly before midnight.

There is no just criticism that can be bestowed on a man for advocating a cause he believes to be right. The well meaning prohibitionist is entitled to his views and while we may criticize them on their merits, we have no right to go to the motive behind, so long as the arguments advanced are honest. But when a man departs from truth and cites statements not capable of proof, he is open for criticism, even condemnation.

For some time Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson has been in California advocating the destruction of its vineyards, its hop industry, its brewing industry and other industries closely allied. As argument in favor of the position he assumes, he has cited in numerous places throughout this state that, counting all who have been killed or wounded in all the wars from the Macedonian wars 10 years B. C. to the present, he estimated that about 2,300,000 Americans were killed in America by alcohol in one year, or more than the soldiers, sailors and others of all nations sacrificed by war 2300 years; and he added to this: "More than 2000 American citizens are slain each day by alcohol."

The mortality statistics of the census bureau shows Captain Hobson in error. In the registered area, representing two-thirds of the entire population, there were in 1912, 833,215 deaths from all causes, about one-third as many as Captain Hobson attributes to alcohol. Of this total 204,639 WERE CHILDREN UNDER FIVE YEARS OF AGE; 216,184 WERE PERSONS WHO HAD PASSED THE AGE OF 65, WHILE 28,000 DIED BETWEEN THE AGES OF FIVE AND FOURTEEN YEARS. Deducting this from the total leaves 390,000 deaths between the ages of four and sixty-five. As 142,000 died between the ages of 50 and 65, it would leave a total of 248,000 deaths of people who would come within the danger line of alcohol from moderate drinking. This applies to two-thirds of the population. Applied to the whole country would show that the total deaths between the ages of 14 and 50 would be 372,000, or a little over 1000 every day from all causes, instead of 2000 every day from alcohol. The Census Bureau, however, shows the causes of death. Here they are:

Tuberculosis, 90,360; cancer, 46,531; typhoid fever, 10,000; measles and scarlet fever, about 10,000; whooping cough, more than 4000; heart disease, 86,000; pneumonia, 51,000; accidents, 50,000; suicides, 10,000; homicides, 4000; alcohol, 3183.

Hobson has said that alcohol causes 3000 American men to murder their wives each year and 2500 to kill their children. In the census bulletin of prisoners and juvenile delinquents for 1910 it is shown that there were 6890 prisoners in state prisons on January 1 of that year, sentenced for grave offenses or for murder. OF THESE 864 WERE FROM NINE PROHIBITION STATES WHICH HAVE 15 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL POPULATION, while 759 were from twelve states, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Missouri and California, licensed states, which have 53 per cent of the total population.

In the nine prohibition states twelve were convicted of murder or every 100,000 population; in the twelve licensed states, 3.6 in 100,000 were convicted. NOW THESE FIGURES PROVE ONE OF TWO THINGS; EITHER ALCOHOL DOES NOT CAUSE MURDER OR PROHIBITION DOES NOT PROHIBIT, AND IF THE LATTER IS THE CASE, THE SORT OF LIQUOR SOLD IN THE PROHIBITION STATES IS OF A KIND CALLED "MARTINI" TO MAKE OF A MAN A CRIMINAL IN CONTRADICTION TO THE BEER AND OTHER LESS ALCOHOLIC LIQUORS SOLD WHERE LICENSES ARE GRANTED.

Captain Hobson made his remarkable statements in Germantown, Pennsylvania, in May of this year. The Public Ledger of Philadelphia, known throughout the length and breadth of this land as a paper standing for morality and temperance, called him to account for his exaggerations and cited the figures from the census records of the Federal Government herein quoted. It is fair to presume that Captain Hobson read the Ledger's statement, which has been repeated in California, where he has addressed meetings on behalf of prohibition.

But notwithstanding the fact that he was challenged by a newspaper of national reputation and highest standing as "injuring the cause of temperance by gross exaggerations," Captain Hobson, in the face of the fact that figures collected by United States officials and verified under oath have disproven his statements, continues to repeat them in California.

What shall be said of an advocate who pleads a cause in this manner? If he persists in making these statements, which are untrue, have we not the right to say:

"Falsus in uno, falsus in omnibus," and having proven that he is in error in these things give ourselves the right to doubt him in others.

Robert Emmett McGlinn.

When a great "journalist" dies, the able editors mourn his loss in doleful phrase and regret that the world of letters has been deprived of the services of so eminent a personage. When a plain, whole-souled, all-round "newspaperman" passes out, the best he gets is a notice penned by some member of the staff whose eyes may be so full of tears as he recalls the many good qualities of the good old chap resting in the never-ending sleep that he can scarcely see the paper on which he is inditing the bare facts.

THE TRIBUNE willingly violates a precedent today in laying a little tribute on the casket enclosing all that is mortal of Robert Emmett McGlinn, sometime night editor of the old Morning Call, later with the Associated Press, a graduate of the University of Washington, a well known worker on several papers in the northwest, an active member of the San Francisco Press Club and one of the best fellows who ever drew breath.

"Mc" as he was known to those who knew and loved him, was found dead in San Francisco bay, believed by those who understood him best to have been done to death by foul hands, although the truth will doubtless never be known, owing to the lack of activity on the part of the San Francisco police to whom murder is but an incident.

It is related by some that he was a suicide, but perish the thought! His was not a nature to seek self destruction, for he had hopes and aspiration, aims and ideals.

He was no saint, was "Mc," nor was he a sinner. He was essentially human. He loved his friends and disliked his enemies and had all the weakness that some call strength and all the strength that some designate weakness. He was loyal to whatever cause he espoused. He had ability too, plenty of it, and was a tireless worker. He filled every place in which he was placed with marked efficiency and would, had not unkind fate taken him away, have made a mark in the newspaper world. He was a bit of bon vivant and liked those things that go to make life bearable for those whose duty it is to maintain the constant grind. Yet underneath the gaiety there was a seriousness that boded well for him in the coming days.

There is not a newspaperman on the coast who knew "Mc" but will grieve at learning that he has crossed the line into the Unknown and will regret that he was not given opportunity to live out the full measure of his years.

Through the kindness of the members of the San Francisco Press Club "Mc's" remains are on the way to his old home to be laid to rest beside those whom he loved in other and happier days. As the train carrying them travels through the night and the day to that old home, it carries with it the sincere grief of his associates who will ever pray that his pillow may be soft, his slumber sweet and his awakening in a newer and fuller life a pleasant one. Vale!

The Macdonough theater was packed, as the production of "The Millionaire," with a demonstrative audience to wit by Daniel Sully and his excellent company. At a meeting of the city council the death knell was sounded to the Washington street opening, the following resolution being recommended for adoption after prolonged discussion: "Whereas, the city attorney has advised this council that under the present law the city has no legal authority to form a district to meet the expense incident to the proposed removal of the City Hall and other expenses connected therewith; and, whereas, the financial condition of the city will not warrant such a large expenditure of money at this time; therefore be it resolved, that the further consideration of the question of the removal of the City Hall and the opening of Washington street be and the same is indefinitely postponed."

LIKENS DEFENDANT TO JELLY FISH

Joe Dears' Case Disposed of
With Lecture and Six Months Sentence.

Humanity in one of its puzzling phases was compared to the jelly fish by Superior Judge Ogden today, when he was called upon to dispose of the time being of the case of Joe Dears, who for the last two years has always been just one behind in the court that would make him a felon. Charged with failure to provide for his wife and two minor children, Dears has occupied more attention on the part of the authorities for some time past than any other defendant in the Juvenile or Superior court.

He has been sentenced to serve six months in the County Jail while the county pays about $12 per month for the support of his offspring. It was a sentence which to the defendant himself seemed a little longer than the months which he served a short time ago. "I'm like a jelly fish," he told Judge Ogden. "I'm always drifting along and I never know where I'm going to end up. I never had it in for him."

But here I have had to take these children after raising a big family of my own. My daughter was ill. She was taken to the almshouse, but I had her removed to a private hospital. Now she will never leave there. Don't ask me how long the sentence should be, Judge. It makes me choke in my throat."

Dears came to the eyes of the defendant as he stood arraigned for sentence. He had banded with the Court and had been characterized as a "jelly fish" and a "drifter." Neither appellation seeming to percolate beyond the smile on his face.

"If all of the world was a sea and the people fish within it, surgeons, barbers, cutters, salmons, abas, sandaks, the quick flashing shark or the festive and sportive trout," said Judge Ogden, "you would be the jelly fish lying on the sands of time, out of the sea and unable to get back again. You have a good heart, you are a good barber, no doubt, but one smell of booze and you become a demon, forgetting your better self."

PLANNED CHAIN GANG.

"It had been my intention," continued the Court, "to sentence you to one year in the County Jail, and direct the Supervisors to provide a chain gang so that you could work for the county and receive $1.50 per day that would go to your wife and family. But following a conference with the Supervisors I find that the project will not be advisable; that it would increase the already high tax rate and be a burden to many. However, they promised to increase the payment of $10 per month and you can go where you can get the liquor out of your system."

"I understand that if a chain gang were invoked in your case it would require a special guard to watch you work, a vehicle to take you back and forth beyond the city limits and I don't think that you could earn $1.50 per day, never having been used to it."

Thought at the inconvenience and expenditure he might otherwise have forced upon the county brought back a smile on the defendant's face.

His wife became involved with another man at the home for the deaf and blind, and was shot. Dears has, during his sentence, done what he could for her, forgiving the episode. Then at intervals he appeared in court and kept the probation office busy.

REPRESENTATION OF SOUTH REDUCED

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The bitter fight waged since 1890 to reduce the representation of Southern States in Republican national conventions has been won. Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican National Committee, announced yesterday that the call for the convention of 1916 would be on a new basis, which reduces the number of delegates by eighty-nine. Most of this loss falls on the South.

In the next national convention the delegation of Alabama will be reduced by 5, Arkansas by 3, Florida 4, Georgia 13, Louisiana 4, Mississippi 3, New York 1, North Carolina 4, South Carolina 7, Tennessee 3, Texas 16, Virginia 8, Hawaii 4, Porto Rico 2 and the Philippine Islands 2.

ARREST CODE VIOLATOR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—Isaac Hodgson, an engineer, was very thirsty early this morning but lacked money to buy a drink. Nevertheless he visited the saloon of John Lundgren, 158 Embarcadero street, and filled his glass several times. Then it came time to pay. Hodgson handed over a check for $55 on the Merchants National bank. Lundgren was suspicious, summoned Officer Harden and had the engineer arrested. The latter confessed to Night Captain of Detectives Bailey that he had written the check himself and that it was worthless, and he was booked for violating Section 475A of the penal code.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—John J. Mallow, auditor of Sing Sing prison, was committed to jail today in contempt of court for refusing to answer questions before the grand jury investigating automobile rides and other favors granted to David A. Sullivan, an inmate of Sing Sing.

Sullivan is in prison for wrecking the Union Bank of Brooklyn, of which he was president. Complaints that he had been transacting his private business from the prison, had collected money which belonged to the assets of the bank and he had been taken on automobile rides about the country, while he was supposed to be in prison, caused an investigation by District Attorney Cropsy of Brooklyn.

LICENSE REVOCATION

Members of Plymouth Congregational Church will attend the session of the city council tomorrow morning, when the case against George C. Cronin, 4339 Piedmont avenue, a saloon keeper found guilty by the commissioners of selling liquor to minors, came up for decision.

Rev. A. W. Palmer, pastor of the church, urged the members of his congregation yesterday to insist that the law in this case be administered with rigid severity, asserting that in several instances the city council has contented itself with imposing fines upon saloon keepers who violated the law, when the city ordinance provides that the penalty may be revocation of the license.

"The commissioners know that the present city ordinance, poor as it is, provides for the legitimate punishment by revocation of license, of wilful violation of the law against selling liquor to minors," declared Dr. Palmer. "Yet they have been lax in this matter, and according to Commissioner Turner's own statement, inconsistent."

"There are two saloons in this neighborhood to which the residents object. It is a residential district, and the saloons do not belong here. There has been an admitted violation of the law in one. The council must impose a fitting penalty."

'WHEN NO BIRDS SING'

Novelist's Wife Laments Hushed Notes in Garden

Mrs. Herman Whitaker has made a curious discovery in her Piedmont garden. The birds are silent this year.

For the first time in many summers and early autumns there has been no "joyous outpouring of song" in the trees of the Piedmont hills. No outpouring of song, whether joyous or sad. The birds have gone about their affairs among the flowers in an introspective sort of way that seems strangely subdued.

It was early in August that Mrs. Whitaker suddenly noticed the silence. She wondered if the birds had gone away for some reason, a possible inferiority of early worms, or something of that sort. But they were all there when she looked, flitting among the trees and flying on their secret missions over other gardens.

For a long time she wondered about them and then evolved a theory. That is, at least, interesting. Mrs. Whitaker believes that the clamor of war abroad has silenced the birds of Piedmont.

It must surely have stilled them in Europe. No nightingales or thrush would have the courage to sing in the war zone. Its musical message of peace would be hopelessly lost in the rattle of artillery. As a matter of fact, it is ornithologically true that birds never sing in the sound of battle. And it is true, also, that they cross continents and have crossed oceans. So it may be that Mrs. Whitaker's theory of a silence of sympathy with the troubled birds of Europe, whose songs are stilled in, after all, not wildly improbable.

TO GIVE DANCE.
The Thursday Night Assembly will hold its first dance of the season on November 5th at the Town and Gown club in Berkeley. The assembly is composed of some of the younger married set of Berkeley and Oakland and will give a series of five dances.

Among the members are Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. William Sidout, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simpson, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Stow, Dr. and Mrs. Fred McMath, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gindell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Colt, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Pierson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schaefer, and others.

MRS. ORRICK A HOSTESS.
Mrs. Murray Orrick will be hostess at a large bridge party on Thursday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Orrick. The party will be given at the home of Mrs. Orrick with a few others for tea later in the afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Orrick will be her mother, Mrs. Hugh Goodfellow, Mrs. Irving Burrill and Miss Lillian Downey.

GIVE DINNER.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Montgomery Whitlock (Ludell Adams), gave a dinner a few evenings ago at their new home in Berkeley in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stinson Wheeler Jr. and Mrs. Charles Stinson Wheeler Sr. (John and Mrs. Whitlock and Mrs. Wheeler). Head were former classmates at Miss Ransom's school.

RETURN FROM THE EAST.
Mr. and Mrs. William Cavalier returned several days ago from the east, where they spent several months. They were entertained by friends in New York and Washington and had a most delightful trip.

SALES FOR MANILA.
Mrs. W. C. Cowles, wife of Admiral Cowles, in command of the Asiatic fleet, called for Manila on Saturday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Heppner at their home in Fairmont avenue. Mrs. Cowles has spent several months in America and is on her way to Manila to see her daughter, Lieutenant and Mrs. Leo Sahm at Bremerton during the summer. They accompanied her to Oakland and are still at the Heppners' home. Mrs. Cowles called on the Monday and will join the Admiral in the Orient. ## EDUCATION ROW HAS ECHO AT SUPERVISORS

Board Refuses to Act on Quarrel; Alameda County Tax Rate Lowest in State

The fight which has been raging in the Board of Education for the past three weeks over the diversion of $2300 from the Frick school to the Lafayette school to provide for a new assembly hall, has had an echo in the Board of Supervisors' meeting this morning when the Board of Education's appeal for a reduction of the tax rate was taken up. The Board of Supervisors, representing the improvement clubs of the Frick school district, filed protest. The board decided that no action could be taken, the county authorities having no power to dictate the expenditure of funds for city schools, although the supervisors fix the tax levy.

Alameda has the lowest tax rate, by a cent, of any county in the state. This was shown today in the report of county tax rates made by the board from the office of the state controller. The Alameda county tax rate, for outside districts (not in cities) is $12.4, including all taxes, school and otherwise, as against $12.5 in Los Angeles. The inside tax rate, or rate within cities, is $4 cents, as against $5 in Los Angeles. Others run from a $3 rate inside and $3.40 outside rate, in Yuba county, to the Los Angeles rate.

ASK COUNTY AID.
Request from the Oakland Real Estate Association for a donation of $250 to aid in entertaining the State Realty Federation, was received. This was referred to the publicity commission for a report.

A. G. Edmonds reported on his inspection of the county infirmary boiler, reporting it to be in good condition.

IS GIVEN CONTRACT.
The Lyon Storage Company was awarded the contract for erecting election booths on November 3, the local firm submitting the lowest bid at $2.65 per booth.

Recommendation was made by the publicity commission that $300 be donated to a county baby welfare exhibit. The board had already promised the appropriation.

AMENDMENT URGED.
Urging that the voters support amendment No. 31, providing for taxation of public property, and applying to local holdings of the Spring Valley Water Co., the board today passed the following resolution:

"Whereas, many municipalities in California are engaging in enterprises of public utility, and it is the duty of the board to see that the voters are properly informed of the merits of the proposed amendment, and to urge its adoption, be it resolved, that the board of supervisors do hereby urge the voters to support amendment No. 31."

COMPENSATION FIXED.
Fees and compensation for the election of November 3 were fixed by the board this morning as follows:

Election officers, $10; rent of polling places, $10; rent of election booths, $10; hauling booths, $10; hauling supplies, $10; hauling returns, $10 to $150, per set.

Work was ordered in repairs to the water main on the San Lorenzo creek bridge.

URGES GOOD CITIZENS TO ELECT REPUBLICANS

Voter Gives Cogent Reasons for Support of Fredericks and His Party

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I have not said much in this campaign, but have listened much. For many years the Republican party has gradually been losing its standard and while doing so has built up a splendid monument by its principles which will long survive and pass into history as a great foundation for stable and good government.

While Johnson is now attempting to outstep the grand principles of this party by its leaders and spokesmen, I must not forget the one fact and be grateful for it that Johnson has kept his word with the Republican party. Before the Republican party was elected Governor of the state of California he paraded from one end of this state to the other, promising to do all he could to carry out the standard set by the party. This standard proved to be one too high for him to carry out. But true to his word, he left the grand old party and took with him the party bosses, "ballot stuffers" and his many non-partisan friends, the party appointees who are gathering in scraps of the public meal.

HUMAN TO ERR.
A great number of good citizens with ideals set as high as the Republican party followed. These changes take place like a rush to a new ideal, and many opportunities are given to the same effort is put forth, or what hardships are really in store for them in the new field. But one by one they come home again wiser and better satisfied, stay and stick to and work for the good old party that has done so much for them. This will happen again and again. This is the major part of the Progressive party. Gladly welcome them back. "It is human to err," but the danger is not that it is to live it down.

I believe that Fredericks is the right man and that we will not be able to make the party principles of high a standard for him to carry out. We should be careful to assist him by electing men who are in sympathy with the principles which he should carry out. The best that is in him and the best that is offered by the Republican party.

TARIFF REVISION NEEDED.
Of no small moment is the election of the United States senator and congressman. If ever there was a time in the history of this country when a tariff revision was necessary, it is now, and it needs Republicans to do it. The purpose of California representatives should be directed upon the interest of California productions, and the main effort should be concentrated on these products and manufactures that are exclusively California.

There is no other controversy which is so selfish as that introduced in parliamentary debate on the tariff revision. When a question arises in any section for a revision of the tariff, those who are seeking it are thinking wholly of their own interests. Every tariff revisionist is always ready to revise his tariff. By reason of this selfish attitude, an error is made in the tariff revision. It is not to be a universal conflict, offensive and defensive. It is generally conceded that the tariff needs revising. We with us, then, and lower its rate as it is now, there is not anyone who is willing to submit to an impartial appointment of the tariff, which is the duty of the nation's economic proposition that the protection shall confer the greatest good upon the greatest number.

CALIFORNIA A PROGRESS.
It is clear, under the present status, that the rule of national economic reform is everybody for himself and revision take the hindmost. California is peculiarly situated to attack tariff revision. It is a garden and an orchard, rather than a factory. Here in this chosen spot all the different kinds of fruits of earth grow to perfection in a soil especially adapted, nurtured by a climate that insures a profitable return in spite of great expense and a long season of interior foreign products is kept within reasonable bounds by a just protective tariff. The very conditions that exist in California are the basis of the world in her products, and her great advantages over other parts makes her a target of envy for the tariff revision. Therefore, it stands as in hand to begin right now in the work of defending our solitary California self-interest. Otherwise, the whole nation will be injured in her commerce. Our representatives must be able to defend what has cost us so much. They must be able to appear small in their cause. They must keep to the party principles which will be as good as their own. They must be able to stand for the truth, but may be asked to show our inferiority to others that are going through the same inferiority. The dangers which now menace us on the tariff question are serious and it will take the best material we can send to Washington to do the work. Therefore, so much, and in this particular we should pay all prejudices and friendships aside, and if this is done I cannot see how we can help voting for Joseph E. Knowland for United States senator and George H. Dorr for Congressman from this district.

SEEK MISSING WOMAN.
The police have been asked to assist in the search for Mrs. Rebecca Lamb, 65 years of age, who wandered away from her home, 1455 Ninth street, yesterday. Her son, Richard Lamb, fears that some mishap has befallen her, as she has been ill and was in a weakened condition.

A WOMAN DOCTOR.
"Eugenics is a necessary factor in the future of the race. The average American girl is unfit for motherhood. This may be true, but if weak and ailing girls passing from girlhood to womanhood, would only rely, as thousands do, upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, this simple remedy made from roots and herbs, to restore the system to a normal healthy condition, it would cause many ills from which they suffer to disappear. As they grow older, it might become the joy of their lives."

AS TO SMALL INJURIES

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

Copyright, 1914, by LILLIAN RUSSELL

A SMALL scratch upon the hand seems to be nothing, and it usually is, yet the smallest of abrasions sufficiently large to admit a whole regiment of death-dealing germs.

An abrasion amounts to nothing, providing no germs are lurking about, but once the wound becomes infected it becomes a serious matter. A wound as small as a pin point has caused death countless times. A "ragam" on the finger, which does not even give pain, offers an entering place to the most dangerous germs known to medical science.

Too great care cannot be given to abrasions or cuts on the hands or any other part of the body. It requires such a little bit of time and effort to give them the proper care at the proper time, and the precaution is well warranted.

It is possible that the skin may be so tender that the healing qualities of the blood will quickly repair the damage. But on another occasion, infection may occur and blood poisoning result. Tetanus, or lockjaw, is a serious condition, the sufferings of a victim of this affliction should be sufficient incentive to take every possible precaution against infection.

If you suffer a scratch or a cut, cleanse the wound thoroughly and apply a dependable antiseptic, of which there are many. See that no dirt lodges in the wound and give it some care until the skin heals over. The chances with even the smallest abrasion.

P. G.: Butter milk is excellent for the skin. It is a mild bleach. In using buttermilk, use a bowl and wash the face in the milk as you would with water, using the heel of a cloth. Allow the buttermilk to dry on the skin. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you instructions for facial massage.

But nevertheless the body occasionally requires creams, butters, oils, greases, yolks of eggs, meat and vegetable fats, for they aid in keeping the tissues from breaking down and in restoring them to health.

This people especially should eat as much fat and oils as their digestion will comfortably stand. The digestive process should not be overtaxed, and this is something that should be carefully guarded against, for fatty substances make heavy demand upon the juices of the stomach. For the war or emaciated person, the fatty or yolk part of the egg, scrambled or fried in pork or bacon fat, will do much. Olive oil is another good tissue builder.

Ordinarily there is sufficient fat in the ordinary dinner dishes to suffice, but those who have repugnance for fat and exclude every trace of it from meals while preparing them should realize that fat plays an important part in nourishment.

Where fats and oils are distasteful, it is easy to find some method of preparation to overcome this objection. With a little inquiry, the ordinary housewife can cook a side fat in prepared dishes that it can not be detected by either taste or smell.

Research shows that among the Jewish people the grease from fowls has been used from time immemorial history, and that its use has been to do away with the waste of distempers among the people of this ancient nation.

Fatty foods are of particular benefit in the winter months, but at all seasons some fat should be eaten, for the sake of the bodily tissues which demand it. And a little fat at times does no harm, but it can not be detected by either taste or smell.

Remember: That a wasted tissue is difficult to rebuild; so it is better to prevent the wasting.

KEY SYSTEM WILL FIGHT FOR FRANCHISE

FREDERICKS FINDS
NO SUNDAY RESTCandidate's Party Is Besieged by Crowds of Well-Wishers

(By WILL D. SIMONDS)

BYRON HOT SPRINGS, Oct. 26.—There has been no lull in the activities of the party of Captain John D. Fredericks. It was intended that Sunday be a day of rest for all of us, but it was impossible to carry out the idea. We had all looked forward to a chance to refresh ourselves after the strenuous cyclonic trip through Alameda county Saturday afternoon.

Yesterday morning, when the party left the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco, Mrs. Fredericks made a special request that we all refrain from the mention of politics and enjoy a few hours of quiet. To a man we promised to do so. It was not our fault that we broke our pledge.

EXPRESS GOOD WILL.
All along the line of travel we were stopped by this man and that, who wanted to extend his best wishes to the support of his friends in the campaign. At Livermore, the streets were crowded and it was impossible to get through without making a stop and greeting the people. The dusty automobiles of the farmers were jammed in the main thoroughfare, many of them carrying Fredericks banners. It was in Livermore where we were asked to tell all about the "Andy" Gallagher incident, and the feeling was intense that this man should be taught a lesson for his crude attempt to break up a scheduled meeting of the Republican party. We had not expected this, and it indicates more strongly than anything else that the people of the state of California are asking for a clean slate and a new deal. It shows that they are watching like hawks and that in the Republican leader they see the man they want.

Just as we were driving into the pretty little town of Dublin our machine was halted and we came to a stop. From the porch of a quaint little cottage one of the sweetest pictures of womanhood in later years I have ever seen came slowly out to meet us. We waited, wondering what she could possibly want. She seemed so friendly and motherly that we all felt closer to our own homes for the sight of her.

WANTED TO SHAKE HAND.
As she drew near we heard her speak in the smallest of silvery voices. "That's Captain Fredericks," she said, looking directly at him. "That big man I know him anywhere. I'm the mother of five Republican boys."

The motion was based on the contention that the defendant was not present in court when the verdict was read. Arguments on both sides were concluded late today.

There Is But One
PIANOLA

Though widely imitated, the Pianola alone has those vital features which make artistic playing by music roll a reality.

You, or anyone, may sit down before the Pianola and instantly play with feeling, through the guidance of the Metrostyle—a correct and authoritative guide, enabling you to at once grasp the composer's thought, and to understand his interpretation. The Metrostyle is but one of many important features exclusive to the Pianola; these vital improvements make the Pianola supreme—and give it the unanimous indorsement of the world's most famous pianists, who say with one accord: "The Pianola is the ONLY player instrument worthy of serious musical consideration."

Investigate the Pianola—try it yourself—just once—then you'll understand.

WOMAN WEDS
STEEL TRUST
WHILE UNDER ANESTHETIC
STILL UNDER
PROBEMarried While on Operating
Table; Court Grants
Annulment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Married as she lay under the influence of opiates on an operating table in St. Francis hospital with the white gown physicians standing about, their instruments ready to perform an operation from which it was believed she could never recover, Mrs. Mable S. Soper, wife of Dr. Richard Watts Soper, testified before Superior Judge Morgan today that she had no idea that a ceremony had been performed until her recovery. She was granted an annulment.

The details of the peculiar wedding ceremony in the grim and forbidding surroundings of an operating room were told for the first time today by Mrs. Soper, who declared that she had never lived with her husband and had never consented to marry him. Dr. Soper, formerly a prominent physician in the East, but at present in the oil business here, offered no opposition.

The strange scene depicted by Mrs. Soper occurred on July 28. The woman had been removed to the hospital in the desperate hope that an operation might save her life. She had been taken to the operating room by Dr. S. T. B. W. Leland and John S. O'Connor had prepared their instruments and in turn, being about to administer an anesthetic when Dr. Soper, accompanied by Mrs. Soper's sister, Mrs. Creighton, appeared. Mrs. Soper told the court that it was at Mrs. Creighton's suggestion that Justice of the Peace Conlan be sent for and the ceremony performed.

WITNESSES TESTIFY.
The wife declared that Dr. Soper had for a long time been a suitor for her hand, but that she had no intention of marrying him and no desire to do so. She declared that she had been stupefied by drugs and had no realization of what she was doing at the time Judge Conlan read the marriage service. On recovering her health she asserted that she had never lived with Dr. Soper, but immediately began taking steps which led to the annulment proceedings.

Coroner Leland, who was a witness of the marriage, was also the corroborating witness at the separation. He testified to the truth of Mrs. Soper's statements that she had not been exactly conscious of what she was doing when she was joined in the bonds of matrimony. The physician added, however, that her relatives had deemed it best that the ceremony be performed in order that Dr. Soper might care for the woman's 13-year-old daughter in the event that she did not survive the operation.

The court granted her annulment, no opposition being offered by Dr. Soper.

Before her marriage to Doctor Soper, Mrs. Soper was Mrs. Mabel S. Wilson.

CHIEF JUSTICE SULLIVAN
ENDORSES JUSTICE SHAWHead of Supreme Court Gives Associate Unqualified
Recommendation for Re-election to Position

Chief Justice Matt I. Sullivan of the Supreme Court of California, appointed to fill out the unexpired term of the late Chief Justice Beatty, has issued an unqualified endorsement of Associate Justice Lucien Shaw for re-election. Justice Sullivan says in a letter to S. F. Lieb of San Jose:

"San Francisco, Cal., October 17, 1914.

"Hon. S. F. Lieb, San Jose, Cal.
"My Dear Judge: As you will undoubtedly recall, I was, before my appointment as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, a member of the committee of lawyers organized for the purpose of furthering the candidacy of Judge Lucien Shaw for re-election to the Supreme Court. After becoming a member of that court I necessarily lost touch with the committee; nevertheless, I feel that the committee's work, done as it was almost exclusively among the members of the bar, failed to inform the general public concerning Judge Shaw's qualifications for the office.

"The lawyers throughout the state are, of course, well acquainted with Judge Shaw's unblemished record and his superior qualifications for judicial office. The public at large, however, knows comparatively little about him or his attainments. This is quite natural because the work in which Judge Shaw has been engaged, though of the greatest importance to the state, is not of a character to attract public attention.

"I am informed that all the other aspirants for the office of associate justice, before the primary election, expressed themselves as not desirous of having their respective candidacies considered as such in opposition to Judge Shaw. That fact shows that those intimately acquainted with the work of the Supreme Court appreciate Judge Shaw's worth. I, who have been a member of the bar of the State of California and have practiced before the Supreme Court for over thirty years and have had some experience as Chief Justice of that court, am in a position to speak advisedly of Judge Shaw's qualifications. His experience of twelve years upon the supreme bench and prior experience of fourteen years upon the superior bench, his integrity, industry and learning, all combine to make him eminently fit for the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

"These facts should be made known to the people and if you believe that a statement coming from me will carry any weight, you are at liberty to make public this communication.

"Yours very truly,
"MATT I. SULLIVAN."

Further Argument for Dissolution of Corporation Touches
Price Conspiracy.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—Further argument designed to show why the United States Steel Corporation should be disintegrated on the ground that it is an unlawful trust, as charged by the government, was made in the United States District Court here today. Henry E. Colton, special assistant to the attorney general in the government's dissolution suit against the big steel concern and its subsidiaries, was the first speaker. It is expected arguments will not come to an end until late tomorrow. Colton reverted to the alleged maintenance of uniform prices of steel products for long periods after the formation of the steel corporation.

Colton argued that the witnesses the government had called and the documents it had presented in evidence clearly proved that the steel corporation was the leader in having the independents go along with it in keeping up prices.

In answer to the argument of the defense that prices have not been uniform, especially in the last few years, Colton replied that the government does not contend that prices have been consistently maintained since the government filed its suits three years ago and Congress, through the Stanley committee, began its investigation into the steel corporation's operations.

In judging the case, Colton told the court it should not consider the prices brought about by governmental action in comparison with the alleged excessive prices that existed before the department of justice and Congress opened their attacks on the corporation.

QUESTION OF COSTS.
Counsel for the government announced to the United States District Court that the United States Steel Corporation are interested so far as they are involved in the dissolution suit against the United States Steel Corporation, amounts to only a question of costs in the present suit. Henry E. Colton, special assistant to the attorney general, in arguing on the government's side of the steel corporation, told the court that the lease of lands by 16 companies owned by the Great Eastern interests to the steel corporation has been superseded by another agreement which virtually cancelled the original lease.

Colton wanted to know how it could cancel a lease that was no longer in operation. Mr. Colton replied that the question was now merely one of the propriety of the cost suit to be assessed against the Great Northern.

While on the subject of uniform prices as an indication of non-competitive conduct in the steel industry, Mr. Colton said the steel corporation's products in foreign markets at prices greatly lower than in the United States. The defense, he said, contended that it was only the surplus products that were so disposed of in foreign countries. Mr. Colton said as a fact that the steel corporation sold its surplus at a reduction.

In the foreign markets was an indication that the corporation intended to keep up excessive prices at home. If the corporation had been honest with the public, Mr. Colton said, it would have disposed of its surplus product in the United States at the lower prices. David A. Reed of Pittsburgh, of counsel for the Steel Corporation, defended Anthony Carnegie's action in disposing of his interests to the Steel Corporation when it was organized.

Mr. Reed said Mr. Carnegie had no thought that the Steel Corporation intended to monopolize the steel business. Mr. Carnegie's one thought, he said, was to retire from a long and active business career and devote his time to philanthropy.

MAN OF MYSTERY
VANISHES AGAINStrange Patient Escapes From Custody of Nurses at S.
F. Hospital.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The strange man of mystery, whose lapse of memory and forgetfulness of name and surroundings has baffled the most prominent alienists of the West, has disappeared. He escaped from the custody of nurses at the City and County Hospital this morning and his present whereabouts are unknown. The man was first heard of in Colorado, where he made a statement to the effect that his home was in San Francisco. He said then that he remembered nothing except that he had been held up and beaten on the streets of Chicago.

The next heard of him was when he applied for aid, saying he was a man who was. He was turned over to the police, and Detective McLaughlin spent a week in taking him about the city endeavoring to find some familiar object which might bring back memory of the past. The officer was unsuccessful. Physicians at the detention hospital tried to penetrate the darkness, but without avail, and the mysterious man was taken to the City and County Hospital in the hope that quietness and care might bring back his lost senses. Today he calmly walked out of the place while no one was looking.

BOTH LEAVE LONDON

Austrian Musician and His
Oakland Bride Finally Return.

Signor Antonio De Grassi and his wife, who was formerly Miss Winnifred June Morgan of Oakland, have arrived in New York from London, after a trying experience under the espionage of the British authorities. Signor De Grassi, whose parents were Italian, was born in Austria, his family having removed to Trieste for a temporary residence before his birth. This fact made both him and his wife, subjects of Francis Joseph, and in consequence they were obliged to register with the police in London, and to report every week. It was many weeks before they were given a permit to leave England. They secured passage to America two weeks ago, and it is their intention to make their permanent home in Oakland, where Signora De Grassi's mother, Mrs. Isabel Morgan, resides.

They will remain in New York several weeks before leaving for California. Signor De Grassi, who is one of the noted violinists of London, will give concerts in the East, assisted by his wife, who is also an accomplished violinist. Later they will be heard in Oakland and San Francisco, where their coming is awaited with interest in musical circles.

Her Jaw Broken in Mysterious Assault

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Miss Ruth Adams of 221 Second avenue, who later gave the name of Helen Ingman, was the victim of a mysterious assault which occurred at the corner of Ellis and Van Ness avenue at a late hour last night. The police are making a careful investigation to learn the motive for the attack.

Miss Adams was discovered by Patrolman John A. Reed in a dazed condition. She stated that two men had caught hold of her, struck her in the face and attempted to hustle her away. She screamed and they fled. On being taken to the central emergency hospital early this morning it was found that the young woman's jaw had been fractured. It was there that she gave the name of Helen Ingman. After treatment she refused to make any further statement and departed.

Mrs. Matilda Beckwith, 2335 Anita street, Oakland, died from heart failure on a Southern Pacific train yesterday. The woman fell over suddenly in her seat and was found by Conductor Jones, who had her removed to the receiving hospital. JURIST SETS
DATE FOR
HEARINGCourt to Determine the Legal Rights of Railroad Company.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—With the consent of the representatives of the city of Berkeley and counsel for the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, Federal Judge Dooling today set December 14 as the day for the trial of the injunction proceedings, when rights of the Key Route to operate trains on Shattuck avenue and Adeline streets, in Berkeley will be definitely determined. Meantime the injunction restraining the mayor of Berkeley and the chief of police from interfering with the operation of the trains remains in force.

City Attorney Frank V. Cornish and Special Counsel George Clark, representing the Berkeley council and attorneys W. J. Brock and W. H. Smith for the Oakland-San Francisco Terminal Railways appeared in court at 10 o'clock this morning. At the last hearing it was agreed that Attorney Cornish should consent with the council as to the advisability of referring the matter to the master in chancery.

AGREES UPON DATE.
In the interim, however, counsel on both sides agreed to request the court to hear the entire matter, evidence supporting the claims of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways that it has a legal right to run trains in Berkeley on Adeline street and Shattuck avenue.

At the same time evidence will be forthcoming from the Berkeley city officials to the effect that, according to their belief, no such franchise exists, and that the railroad is operating on the strength of a street car franchise alone.

Both sides have expressed themselves as anxious to go into the matter carefully and determine once and for all just what legal rights the railroad company enjoys.

Wilson to Confer on Administration Plans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Plans for the administration program at the December session of Congress will be discussed by President Wilson and party leaders at a forthcoming conference.

The President expects the House will be busy with appropriation bills until February and the Senate meanwhile will be in the midst of other measures—among them the Philippine bill.

The bill for purchase of a government owned merchant marine would be taken up, the President said, until something more important commanded attention.

President Wilson is to remain in Washington this week, but to see as few callers as possible, that he may shape his program and keep in touch with affairs in Europe and Mexico. He will go to Princeton next Tuesday to vote.

Detectives Arrest
Railroad Employee

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Detective Sergeant David Murphy arrived here from Seattle this morning, having in custody William W. Whitney, cashier for the Harvey Company, operating the Santa Fe dining cars. Whitney is accused of felony embezzlement. It is alleged that he misappropriated $770 from the firm.

Rumor of Collision
May Be Confirmed

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—A water front rumor that the steamers Adeline Smith, south bound, and Svea had been in collision off the coast north of Humboldt county not far from Eureka, found a measure of support here today in the reticent comment of the owners that the report had not been confirmed. No further information was obtainable.

STANFORD COACH NAMES
ELIGIBLE LIST OF FIFTY-EIGHT

Only Three of Last Year's Victorious Team Not Included.

The fifty-eight men who are eligible for competition against the University of California team on November 14 have been announced by Coach Brown. The list includes: Austin, Andrews, Bingham, Blais, Brown, Braden, Burns, Card, Carroll, Chandler, Clark, Clover, Coleman, Crary, Davis, Diendorf, Earl, Erb, Captain Galt, Gray, Hall, Husted, Hammon, Hayes, Henry, Jaconini, Kester, Kirksey, Lachmund, Laine, Mayberry, McEwen, Reeves, Rehn, Scott, Seaver, Sargent, Simpson, Smith, Smith, Soper, Steinbeck, Suggart, Templeton, Tilton, Townsend, Urban, Walker, Williams, Wines, Winters, Wright, Wylie, and Wynne.

With the showing of Fred Brooks at three-quarters in such an excellent manner, various critics have drawn conclusions that the U. C. backfield that will meet Stanford on the 14th of November will be composed of Montgomery, half; Gianelli, Canfield, five; Brooks, three-quarters; and Hayes, full. The backfield that put up a nice fight against the Stanford outfit, and the incidents on Saturday will certainly be forgotten. The backfield is a good one, but it seems that he can't get away his kick unless he is far away from an opposing player. He is weak on ground balls, while his tackling is nothing to brag about.

Stanford fans are reminding that any infractions of the rules by Santa Clara occurred. Santa Clara has a good rugby team that put up a nice fight against the Stanford outfit, and the incidents on Saturday will certainly be forgotten. The backfield is a good one, but it seems that he can't get away his kick unless he is far away from an opposing player. He is weak on ground balls, while his tackling is nothing to brag about.

Tilden at breakfast for the varsity played a fine game. Although nervous he was on the ball at all times, and his work in the lineouts was certainly conspicuous.

Let it be said that with a month's practice and conditioning, the Titan club team would have surely put the varsity to a hard test. These Titan players get the game with the varsity, and the result that after the first half they are usually coked to such a degree that they have to play the defensive as was evident on last Saturday.

Referee Jimmy Lafferty showed excellent judgment through all his work in Sunday's Varsity-Titan fracas, and his decisions were hardly ever disputed.

Coach Brown was again hit with some hard luck on Saturday's game. Fred Reeves, veteran wing three-quarters was sent off the field with an injured knee. This game weakness has hindered Reeves all through the season, and it is hoped that it may not keep him out of the big game.

Sk'ter Fanning Wins
Niche in Hall of Fame

Skeeter Fanning twirled a no-run, no-hit game in the morning on the Oakland grounds, and in the afternoon, he pitched a perfect game, winning 1-0. Only two Portlanders reached first and one got as far as second. This was the second no-run, no-hit game of the season. In two games on the local grounds, Fanning has performed the feat against Oakland. In the afternoon, the Seals galloped under the wire a 12 to 1 winner, clinching third place.

Angels and Tigers Assist

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—Venice and Los Angeles closed the Coast league season here with much enthusiasm and plenty of horseplay, dividing honors. The Tigers took the morning game at Venice by a 4 to 3 score and the Angels returned the compliment in the afternoon, winning 7 to 2.

With the second game safe, Los Angeles gave Walter a chance to see if he could come back in the pitchers' box. He helped to make the final game a joyful occasion.

Neither team had a probability of a change in position and both played accordingly. Los Angeles finished the season as runner-up and Venice heads the second division.

Ten boxing bouts will be staged at Piedmont pavilion Thursday evening comprising 20 rounds. Heavyweights, middleweights, lightweights, featherweights, bantams and paperweights will be on the program. Frankie Edwards has made the matches. Six Anderson, the bride of the former's Union, will take Gus Schmidt, the fighting butcher. The men are heavyweights. Who But and Sammy Wentworth all three gloves.

George Kirkland of Los Angeles, who has held this honor for some time, meets Arthur Ketchum, who is the "Seattle Kid." The latter has challenged for the trophy and a series of 960 points will be played, the first half in Oakland and the second in Los Angeles. The games here will occupy November 4, 5 and 6, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, 150 points to be played each evening. Jack Wright, who has secured this attraction for his Oakland rooms, will have a regulation 20x10 table set up for it, and the public is invited to see these experts without any charge.

What is known as the champion game is the style of play which allows 14 balls to be pocketed in the man who gets the last ball. The game is played in the training hall for the next frame. This is the same contest employed in matches for the national trophy, now held by Bennie Allen of Kansas City.

The showing of the Red and White brigade was a disappointment, the players being off color. In the opening period, the Benicia team had everything its own way, piling up points with startling regularity. In the closing period the locals commenced to hit their stride and they held the visitors even, both sides securing the same number of points.

But Who Will Be Smiling Tomorrow Night?

WILLIE FITZSIMMONS (at right) shaking hands with Ralph Grunan, his opponent tomorrow night in a fifteen-round bout at West Oakland. The lads are good-naturedly "kidding" each other over the outcome of the battle, but there will hardly be any smiles by the time the first round is over if the experts are to be believed.

FOLEY'S BOXER RULES
10-7 CHOICE ON BROADWAY

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.)
Ralph Grunan, aspirant for the light-weight crown and rated as the heaviest hitter of any boy his size, the ring has seen in some time, is a pronounced public favorite to take the measure of clever Willie Fitzsimmons. Broadway, which usually backs Fitzsimmons strongly, this time has reversed itself and unloaded on Harry Foley's protégé at odds of 10 to 7. They figure that the tremendous hitting power of Grunan, together with a reach and advantage in weight, will eventually get Fitzsimmons before the fifteen rounds are over.

Jimmy Rahan, manager for Fitzsimmons, points out on the other hand that all of Grunan's victories have been scored against boys who tore into him and whom he fooled into doing the leading. Fitzsimmons is one of the most cautious and best protected boxers Oakland fans have ever seen. It is difficult to penetrate his guard or catch him napping. Still, he has never faced a fighter of Grunan's type before, and the result is sure to be interesting.

Both fighters boxed before many admirers yesterday and laid off work today, doing just enough glove work to keep their judgment of distance perfect and their muscles limber.

The special event will be between Rahan and Frankie Malone and figures to be a rapid fire bout with the strong probability of a knockout. Watt's tract will, as usual, turn out in full force to see Malone.

Young Turner, the hard hitting colored wonder, will face Joe Lanza, said to have a knockout record of his own. Billy Mahan and Frankie Scott complete the card. Jim Griffin will be the referee.

Ball

Skeeter Fanning, with eleven consecutive victories as the season's best pitching record, fell far short of the Coast League record. He bettered the record of nine straight victories, but Fanning only tied the record of eleven straight victories pitched by Charlie Chech of Los Angeles in 1912. And back in 1909 still stands the league pitching record of sixteen straight victories pitched by Brownie of San Francisco.

Besides Fanning with his eleven straight victories, there were three other pitchers in the league this year who ran up a string of eight straight wins during the year. Including Fanning, the three were: Ray, who turned the trick, three of the four pitchers who won eight straight games during the season were San Francisco uniforms. The fourth was an Angel.

Pernoll of San Francisco hung up the eighth straight record early in the year. Elmhake of Los Angeles tied it up again, and went them three straight wins, and then along came Baum of San Francisco with his run of eight straight wins.

Of the four pitchers with unusual runs of victories, Fanning's record was the best, not only because of it being longer than those of his rivals, but also because of the fact that Fanning, even when he had won only eight straight, had defeated every one of the five clubs that were contesting San Francisco's claim to honors.

Elmhake failed to include Oakland in his string of wins; Pernoll failed to include the former Sacramento club in his string, and Baum's record was made at the expense of only three clubs, with neither Venice nor Portland included.

When Fanning reached the eighth straight win his string included three Los Angeles scalps, two over the former Sacramentans, and one each against Venice, Portland and Oakland. When he reached the eleventh straight win Fanning had added two more Oakland scalps and one more win against the former Sacramentans.

Baum's string, centered about Oakland and Sacramento, beating Oakland four times, Sacramento three times and Los Angeles once.

When Fanning included three wins over Portland, two over Sacramento and one each over San Francisco and Venice.

Pernoll's string included three wins each against Portland and Los Angeles and one each against Venice and Oakland.

Well, the 1914 baseball season is over and Oakland fans are breathing more freely today in consequence. So far the come talent is concerned, the season just passed has been one long nightmare for magpies, players and fans. It is something to be forgotten as soon as possible. Portland won its third pennant in four years and deserved it thoroughly, though we still cling to the opinion that a post season series had been held between the Angels and the Beavers, the former would have cleaned up.

Today the ball players are scattering to their homes and resides in all parts of the country. Tyler Christian and Rube Gardner have collected an All-Coast team to play Richmond next Sunday at Richmond, and expect to draw a big crowd as Manager Luce has signed Ping Bodie, Joe Oeschger and other notables.

Magpies of the Pacific Coast League will meet tonight at the annual session of the organization. Jack McCreedy is already here from Portland, and Ben Berry and Ed Maser are expected in the morning. The meeting is an important one, as the fate of Harry Wolter's Mission club is to be settled, a question that has long been hanging in the balance. Other routine matters will occupy the league, but this is the one important problem that must be decided one way or another.

BRICKLEY IS BETTER, BUT CAN'T PLAY

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 26.—Captain Charles E. Brickley of the Harvard football team was discharged last night from the infirmary where he was operated on recently for appendicitis. It is expected that Brickley will be at the side lines at the Stadium tomorrow during practice. It was said last night that he probably would help in coaching the drop-kickers later, but that he would not play in any games this season.

As words led to the verdant fields of the Claremont Country Club yesterday, a result being that hundreds of rabid tennis fans journeyed there for the purpose of witnessing the second, third and fourth rounds of the men's and women's championship singles event of the fourteenth annual California state championships tournament.

There was really nothing sensational recorded in yesterday's matches, only tennis being played. A few mild surprises were unexpectedly sprung during the afternoon, principally in the matches played between Ralph Grunan and Clarence Griffin, W. G. Knowlton and Paul Faulkner, Roland Roberts and Vendyke Johns, Edward Klein and W. G. Knowlton.

In the match as played between Griffin and Griffin, the crowd momentarily expected to see the latter player go down to defeat, being a repeater on his last year's form. Griffin played mediocre tennis and plainly showed the effects of overtraining, which effected his playing considerably.

Griffin had match set three times, but in his anxiety to score by a drive, lost the third and deciding set by 6-4. It was a close shave for Griffin and he should thank his lucky stars that one of Griffin's attempted drives did not materialize. Griffin won by the scores of 6-4, 6-3, 6-4.

Up to this time Vendyke Johns has invariably defeated Roland Roberts in every tournament where they have met. Yesterday Roberts smashed with a vengeance this tradition, achieving a 6-1, 6-3, 6-4. Johns was completely classed by his opponent, who played in great form.

Paul Faulkner, a young and clever defender of the racket from Alameda, distinguished himself by making a most creditable showing against "Doc" Knowlton. Knowlton, a veteran of San Francisco, Knowlton was given a rude shock by his younger opponent, who forced him to a grueling three-set match which Knowlton finally won after a difficult struggle.

Faulkner featured his return with remarkable ability, using which his opponent found impossible to counter. Yesterday Roberts smashed with a vengeance this tradition, achieving a 6-1, 6-3, 6-4. Johns was completely classed by his opponent, who played in great form.

Edward A. Klein, the well-known player of the Oakland Tennis Club, won in his hat by defeating W. A. Marcus of San Francisco, who is quite a success in tennis. Marcus was given a rude shock by a desire to play the net on particular game. Klein won by the scores of 7-5, 7-5, 6-3.

Two enterprising youths took a crack at each other in yesterday's tournament, and where one failed, the other succeeded. Knowlton met an undisputed champion of the hands of Raymond Johnson of San Francisco, who put the "Doc" to a severe test, a test which he failed to survive. Johnson played a cracking good game, scoring repeatedly with nearly straight sets by the scores of 6-4, 6-4, 6-4. Morgan Potrell, brother of the famous tennis player John C. Potrell, was unexpectedly defeated by Johnson, who won by the scores of 6-4, 6-4, 6-4.

Johnson started off with a penalty dash against William Johnston, present singles title holder, but soon lost his speediness when Johnston delivered an assortment of drives which proved unreturnable. Johnston appeared to be at first and only showed a desire to fight when Potrell was leading him by 5-3. The second set Johnston easily won by 6-3.

Charles F. Stuckey, a prominent player of the Oakland Tennis Club, sprained his ankle in his match against William Marcus and was compelled to default with four games up in the second set. Stuckey was going good and it was unfortunate that the accident came at this inopportune time.

Elmer Griffin, brother of the famous tennis player John C. Griffin, was a six-footer, and was successful in winning in two straight sets by the scores of 6-4, 6-4. Young Griffin places with remarkable accuracy, and, like his brother, used splendid head work.

The Strachan-Murray match in the singles finals of the Bay Counties tournament was brought to an abrupt stop in the second set yesterday by the spraining of Murray's ankle, who with remarkable grit and courage endeavored to play it out. Upon Murray's recovery the match will be replayed, starting with the second set.

Playing with marked brilliancy Strachan won the first set from Murray by the score of 7-5. Strachan was in great form, and it is regrettable that the accident should have occurred at this particular time, as he too was giving a good account of himself. The first set was tremendously exciting.

The writer, as indicated in yesterday's paper, is more positive after seeing today's match that Strachan will without question defeat Murray for the Bay Counties title. This observation is only based upon the first set, as Murray was unquestionably hindered in the second set, which he lost by 6-2.

Following are the scores of the State tournament events:
FIRST ROUND.
H. Breck defeated Nelson G. Welburn by default.
John Strachan defeated W. Sharroth, 6-4, 6-2.
